HOW THE MONEY GOES.

Hiscock, chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations, has furnished for publication statements in relation to appropriation bills passed at this session of Congress, and which have become laws. The aggregate amount of all the bills is $229,327,511, made up as follows: Pensions, $8,575,000; military academy, $318,657; fortifications, $670,000; consular and diplomatic, $1,296,755; navy, $15,894,434; army, $24,681,350; postoffice, $44,489,520; Indian, $5,382,655; legislative, $20,464,296; sundry civil service, $23,906,147; District of Columbia, $1,099,867; deficiency, $2,813,187; agricultural, $405,640; miscellaneous bills, $750,000. The aggregate appropriations for last year, including $18,738,875 for the river and harbor bill, was $295,509,639, and for the preceding year, including $11,441,300 for the river and harbor bill, was $219,347,993.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Alta says: "Nevada is not in such desperate plight as generally supposed. Her increase in population from 1870 to 1880 was at the rate of 46.53 per cent., and, although the population of Virginia City and other mining towns has diminished since 1880, that of the pastoral and agricultural regions must have increased. Nevada is becoming a great cattle country, and only patience is needed to witness her revival from the decadence into which she fell when her principal mines gave out.

It is proposed to organize a fire insurance company in Boston with a capital of $1,000,000, one-third of which shall be spent for apparatus to be used in extinguishing fires. It is argued that it is cheaper for companies to protect their own risks in the heart of a large city than to depend upon the city to do it.

Dakota will not be allowed to enter the sisterhood of States until after the next Presidential election. The Democrats gambled and lost on Colorado, and they don't propose to get "left" on Dakota.

As Germany has prohibited the importation of the American hog, Congress ought to retaliate by levying a tariff on Limburger cheese.

A Lost Vessel—Death of a Noted Scout.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4. A Port Townsend dispatch says: The United States revenue steamer Oliver Wolcott arrived from a cruise in search of the bark C. L. Taylor, lately reported capsized and abandoned forty miles outside of Cape Flattery. The wreck was found ten miles out in thirty fathoms of water. The hull appears to be in good condition. The wreck lies in a dangerous position for vessels entering the straits. She lies low in the water and is not visible at any distance. The boat reported missing, containing the second mate and five of the crew, landed safely.

A Portland dispatch says advice just received from the Umatilla Indian agency brings news that the famous Indian scout Unapine was murdered in Montana. In 1878 he rendered signal service to General Howard during the Indian war. The history of his life would be a recital of deeds of the greatest bravery and daring.

The San Francisco Charter Election.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5. The official canvass of the vote on the charter election going on to-day thus far show that chances are against its adoption, and there is some suspicion that the charter is being counted out, as officials at the city hall are generally opposed to it.

A Brave Old Man.

WASHINGTON, March 5. Ex-Senator David Davis will leave here next Tuesday or Wednesday for Fayetteville, N. C., where he is to be married to Miss Burrow.

That Extradition Case.

New York, March 5. The Sun says Sheridan still awaits arrest in extradition proceedings on the warrant accusing him of conspiracy in the Phoenix Park assassinations. He does not make public his boarding place. Said Ford, of the Irish World, yesterday: "But if they want to arrest him at night they will have no trouble in finding him." Gov. Butler and Gen. Roger A. Pryor, counsel for Sheridan, have held a consultation over the case. They are satisfied that the British government has no case under the treaty.

LONDON, March 4. A Dublin dispatch says the police have abundant evidence to prove that P. J. Sheridan was an active instigator of riot in Ireland. There is no reason to suppose Byrne was directly connected therewith. The government has prepared a bill to reorganize the constabulary, to make the machinery for the detection of crime more effective.

PARIS, March 4. Frank Byrne, whose extradition has been asked by the British government, has accepted the services of Clunet, an eminent advocate. Victor Hugo promises to write the papers concerning the hardships of Byrne's arrest when his innocence has been proved.

PARIS, March 5. Two Irish members of parliament have made affidavits that they saw Frank Byrne in London on May 6th last, the date of the Phoenix Park murder.

PARIS, March 5. A meeting will be held on Wednesday to protest against the arrest of Frank Byrne.

NEW YORK, March 5. Sackville West, British Minister at Washington, arrived in this city yesterday from Ottawa, where he has been spending 10 days with the Governor-General. He said last evening he was not here to take any steps in connection with the contemplated arrest of Sheridan for complicity in the Phoenix Park murders. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Patrick Sheridan of New York, but until he has been identified as the man who is thought to have been connected with the tragedy he could not be arrested. Persons would probably have to come from England to identify Sheridan. He did not know that any such persons were on their way to this country. Unless Sheridan was identified, and an intent to murder reasonably shown, he would not be subject to extradition. West said he did not know of any other persons now in this country who are supposed to have been implicated in the murder.

The Sly Old Senator.

ST. LOUIS, March 5. The secret has just been revealed here that Senator Tabor of Colorado and Mrs. Elizabeth McCourt of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, were privately married here on the 30th of last September. The ceremony took place in the law office of Col. D. H. Dyer, an intimate friend of the Senator, and was performed by John M. Young, Justice of the Peace, and witnessed by a brother of Mrs. McCourt, who accompanied her to St. Louis for the purpose. Col. Dyer kept the matter secret, because at that time, although Tabor had been granted a divorce from his first wife, she had a suit against him for alimony and it was feared the announcement of this marriage pending that suit would complicate matters.

The Pacific Coast Delegation.

WASHINGTON, March 4. Senator Miller's family go to Fort-reas Monroe Tuesday, and he does not expect to return to California for several weeks. Page will not go home until next June. Rosecrans expects to leave about the last of May, and not then unless his wife's health is fully restored. Pacheco, who arrived here last Friday, will leave Washington in a few days. He does not expect to be in California before the 1st of May. Berry goes home within the next two weeks, as does Cassidy of Nevada. Senator Farley, who is not in good health, will return home, if able, within a few weeks.

An Old Joke.

WARREN, Ind., March 4. At a reception given after the marriage of Clarence Bruner and Nellie Pettit last night, some food served had a poisonous substance in it, and to-day about one hundred guests have been seized with violent cramping in the stomach, some being quite sick. It is reported that croton oil had been smuggled into an ice-cream freezer, but the rumor does not appear to be well-founded. None of those who partook are seriously ill.

The Illinois Mine Disaster.

BRAIDWOOD, March 4. The water at the Diamond mine has lowered two feet to-day and now stands 64 feet below the original level, and 21 feet remain to be pumped out. One of the largest pumps broke down and remained idle all day. It is expected to lower the water three feet per day.

Alexander H. Stephens.

ATLANTA, March 4.

Governor Stephens' death occurred at about half past 3. At 2 o'clock in the morning it was evident that he was much weaker and that death was close approaching. The doctors placed a strong mustard plaster on his heart and let it remain 20 minutes. When removed there was not the slightest sign of inflammation, showing that there was very little vitality left. At half past 2 his extremities became cold and clammy and assumed a purplish hue. As the end drew near Stephens was lying on his back with his head turned slightly to the right. A husky rattle in his throat that had been plainly perceptible in the night, had ceased entirely, and there was no more heavy breathing and not the slightest gasping. At 3:15 the family was called in. After breathing a few moments he died without the slightest tremor. The news of his death created a thorough sensation, as it was not known that he was so near death's door. To-day the remains lay in state at the executive mansion, and were viewed by 20,000 people. In the afternoon a meeting of citizens was held and addresses delivered by Senator Colquhoun, Judge Sagan, E. B. Leckley, and other prominent citizens. A citizens' committee was appointed to co-operate with a committee from the Legislature and State House officers for the conduct of the funeral. The remains will lie in state at the Capitol until buried on Wednesday or Thursday. Col. Jno. Stephens, nephew of the Governor, said: "I have never known him to speak so little of death as during his present illness or make so few arrangements for the worst that might come. In all other attacks he has been especially careful to impress on me minute details of his wishes and intentions. In this illness he has not said a single word of any desire. This confirms the theory that his illness was exhaustion rather than disease. Stephens made a will some time ago. He leaves $10,000 to the children of his late brother, Judge Stephens. The rest of his estate he leaves to his nephew, Colonel John Stephens. What the estate will foot up depends largely on the sale of his new history of the United States. He made about $30,000 on 'The War Between the States.' His new book is selling very well.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 5. Hon. James S. Boynton, President of the State Senate, was sworn in as Governor. He has ordered an election to fill the vacancy, caused by Stephens' death, on the 24th of April. The Democratic Executive Committee of the State will be called to meet Thursday at Atlanta to consider what action will be taken. The remains of Stephens will be carried to the Capitol to-day to lie in state until Thursday next, when they will be interred in Oakland cemetery.

A Preacher Who Finds Some Good in the Passion Play.

NEW YORK, March 5. Rev. G. W. Gallagher of the Unitarian church preached last evening on the merits of the Passion Play. A friend of his had been moved to tears on witnessing it in San Francisco. The play contained many fine passages, but its main charm was in scenery, which was a close representation of the actual scene. If Morse had called it an exhibition of the New Testament events and customs he would have been better understood. There would have been less objection and he would have been praised instead of cried down. The name condemned it. Its sentiment was also excellent and there was nothing in it immoral. Gallagher said he would rather see it performed than go to many churches and hear ministers who make buffoons and clowns of themselves.

The New Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 4. The city is full—or was before the afternoon trains went out—of men delighted beyond measure at the passage of the tariff bill; not because the bill itself suited so well, but because it will put an end for the present to the tariff and internal revenue agitation. Some tobacco manufacturers are the most pleased, for the agitation disturbed their business more than any other. An iron man, while objecting to the bill, is glad that rates are settled on for a while, and he thought it was the general demand that the new law should have a fair chance.

The Revised Taxes.

WASHINGTON, March 4. The reduction of the tobacco tax, as provided in the internal revenue clause of the tariff bill, goes into effect May 1st. The abolition of taxes on capital and deposits of banks, bankers and national banking associations, takes effect immediately; on bank checks, drafts, matches, perfumery, proprietary medicines and the revised duties on imports, on and after July 1st next.

Getting Economical.

WASHINGTON, March 4. Analysis of the figures for the past three years shows that appropriations for current expenses of the government, irrespective of amounts for pensions, aggregate less than either of the two preceding years.

Anarchists Getting Cornered.
 MADRID, March 4. Another chief of the Black Hand Society has been arrested whose duty was to visit various towns with copies of the constitution and by-laws of the organization, for the purpose of forming branches thereof. Several landlords have received letters demanding money.

VIENNA, March 4. The trial of 30 Socialists has begun. Evidence is obtained connecting the accused with Herr Most. All are charged with treason and half with murder.

Trouble Brewing.

LONDON, March 5. Calcutta advices state that the most intense excitement continues rife among Europeans because of the proposed law giving native magistrates jurisdiction over whites in certain cases. The Times correspondent says it is certain that if the obnoxious measure is pressed 90 per cent. of the white volunteers in Bengal will resign as a protest against it. A great meeting is to be held at Calcutta. Even violence toward native magistrates is threatened.

The Chinese Lottery Game—A Chance to Win.

NEW YORK, March 5. The Sun publishes a long account of the Chinese lottery. Luck is popular with Chinamen here and in San Francisco. The Sun says: In this city or in San Francisco the Chinese themselves play at what they call "High-Low-Game," in which the prize is not a set figure, but varies with the combination. Many more spots are marked than in the white man's game, and the player may pay as high as $100 for one ticket. Enormous prizes are sometimes drawn at this "high-low" lottery. Lucky combinations have been known to break a bank. The largest winning ever made in this city was about one month ago, when Wing Hi paid a Chinaman over $7,000 on a two dollar and a half high-low ticket. The largest drawing made by a white man was made by an Italian, who struck eight spots, drew $600 and went upon a glorious spree in celebration of the event. When he sobered up he found that he had been robbed of all his money. The game becomes rapidly popular because it does not expose the votary to any danger of disgrace, for an accommodating Chinaman may be found who is generally willing for a small consideration to act as messenger between the agency and the player. The investment is small, the drawings rapid, and the companies are scrupulously honest in their dealings with their patrons, and although agents sometimes swindle green players, the man who is willing to brave the loathsome surroundings and disgusting odors of a Chinese gambling den will generally obtain his prize. Any laundryman who knows that his customer is not in collusion with the police will introduce him to the game.

The Mississippi Floods.

ST. LOUIS, March 5. Advice from the lower Mississippi say that at St. Helena, Ark., the water is rising half an inch an hour, and it is believed the highest mark of last year will be reached. It is thought the levees will stand the strain, but uneasiness is felt and preparations made for the worst. Men reported last night as having been washed off a bridge at Blackfish Bayou were rescued. At Arkansas City the water is rising three inches a day, otherwise the situation is unchanged. It is stated that reports of damage over the space of country between Frey's Point and Vicksburg have been greatly exaggerated. The levees are unbroken, and no damage is apprehended.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

—The Union Elastic Goods Company of Boston is reported embarrassed.

—Hon. Nelson Turney, formerly member of the Board of Indian Commissioners, died yesterday, aged 63.

—The Central Labor Union of New York has decided to have a mass meeting to protest against the proposed extradition of Sheridan.

BORN.

CALLIGAN—March 5th, to the wife of William Calligan, a 10-pound boy.

JOTTINGS.

Minor Occurrences in and About Town.

The trial jury has been excused for the term.

Fishermen say sport along the river is good.

There is very little going on in the District Court.

A large number of cattle are being fed at Lovelocks.

Fresh marshmallows and candies at E. A. Allen's.

One road to Glendale is fine; the other is abominable.

Goat-herders will begin to shear their flocks this month.

Large quantities of railroad material are going south for the C. & C.

New goods at Nasby's. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1, 3—26, 40, 55, 60, 60.

Wyoming coal is going west in considerable quantities; and lumber from the mountains goes east.

Travel is improving considerably. This morning there were more passengers than for a month past.

One could meet a Senator or Assemblyman on every corner yesterday, expending their hard-earned wages in a horn.

The bar at the mouth of the Truckee at Pyramid is said to be raising very fast, and will soon entirely obstruct the entrance of the river.

Prospectors are starting out on their regular summer rounds. Though the season has not fully opened, it seems as if the weather were settled for good.

It is said that Al. Briarly killed 21 teal ducks on Saturday at one shot. Yesterday Hume Yerington and Asa Dawson skinned the meadows around Glendale and got 37 birds. They said they might have got a bushel more, if they had wanted them.

A quartette of diminutive boot-blacks trooped down upon the town this morning, arriving here by the early freight train. But they did not acquire much wealth, as they had been forestalled by a full-blooded contraband who worked the town dry yesterday.

It is probable that evergreen mill will be experimented with to a considerable extent on the meadows this season, and it will be tried elsewhere in the State. It is very hardy and prolific, and the best forage grass known. Cattle take to it as readily as to bunch grass. It will stand drouth and flood, and is peculiarly adapted to our sage-brush lands.

BOGUS BUTTER.

The Difference Between Bull Fat and Cow's Cream.

No person with keen sense of taste can be deceived about oleomargarine. Butter is pure oil. Put a little in a warm place and see how quickly it liquefies. If the temperature comes close to boiling the butter is oiled and unfit for food. Try the experiment with oleomargarine. It will not harm it, and you will find it difficult to melt it if you drop it in boiling water. It will dissolve like tallow, with a sort of metallic glint. Oleomargarine, if flavored with true butter and made into prints always keeps the print in the original clear lines. You handle it without crushing it. It seems as if it had just come off ice.

PERSONALS.

A. Y. Ross started on his regular trips Saturday morning.

H. M. Yerington and wife went below yesterday morning.

R. F. Wilkes has been appointed Postmaster at Lookout, Modoc county.

Dusy has left Chase & Thyes' place and is now fishing around the Comstock.

B. F. Leete left for Plumas county this morning to look after a mine he has purchased.

Louis Dea is going to buy up a large number of cattle ranches and combine the whole into a princely domain.

No Fire Escape For Him.

A "commercial traveler" called at the Palace Hotel to-day and wanted to sell a patent fire escape apparatus. Al. White wanted to know how the thing worked. "All you've got to do," said the agent, "is to make the rope fast to the leg of a bedstead, in case of fire, and slide down." "Al gave a grunt, and said, 'That's a neat racket, ain't it? Every man in the house would slide out that way, and the concern would be bankrupt in less than a week. Go west, my son, and strike somebody greener than we are.'"

A New Appointment.

The President Saturday appointed ex-Senator C. C. Powning United States Surveyor-General, to succeed General Davis. Mr. Powning will take possession of his office early in April.

Resigned.

S. M. Jamison has sent in his resignation as Postmaster of Reno, to take effect April 1st.

CHIROGRAPHIC STUDIES.

Delineations of Legislative Characters from Hand-writing.

Chas. Harper is a man of easy, flowing, equable temperament. He is not easily ruffled or excited. Ambition is not very permanent, but care to stand well in other's good graces is evident. There is a fair proportion of calculating power, and the heart is not too susceptible to "another's woes."

Bonham Galland gives a self-conscious, haughty, bold signature. There is somewhat of the determination and dogmatism of the purely aristocratic English character evinced, but it is not such an easy, flowing dignity that one meets with in the peers. There is a studied grace in everything that is done. Effect is sought for and yet there is considerable solidity shown. If all the energies of this character were aroused it would be more than ordinarily dangerous to combat it.

Richard A. Riepe gives a firm, self-willed, ambitious signature. The character is a strange compound of economy almost to parsimoniousness and open-handed liberality. Both these characteristics are very clearly shown to a marked degree. With his sympathies aroused Mr. Riepe would be bountifully generous, but in the ordinary details of life scrupulously careful. There is a fairly strong will which with steady plodding patience will hold its own and work for its own ends. Ambition is one of the dominant powers of the mind.

A. J. Franklin is a man of ordinary ability. Firmness of character is fairly marked. There are no distinctive features in the writing to make it prominent or singular. It is the signature of a man of business, to whom business is the chief thing in life and to whom the conflicting elements of the world have little or no attraction.

Eugene Howell gives the most graceful and flowing signature of the whole House. It is significant of tenderness and grace. Benevolence is not so prominent as it ought to be. There is a nervous energy evinced, which, combined with tenderness of character, will make Mr. Howell "touchy" and easily offended. There is a certain self-will and determination which will assert itself on provocation, yet it will never degenerate into foolish dogmatism.

Walter L. Marsden is easy and nonchalant in whatever he undertakes. There is a grace and elegance which, however, is careless and negligent. Energy is clear and a firm reliance on his own power is shown. There is a solidity about the character and a self-reliant boldness that will enable Mr. Marsden to stand well on any proposition he may embrace. The signature shows clearness of expression and a terseness of diction that is forcible and elegant, yet careless.

S. Varian is a man of boldness and energy. No foolish, economical scruples will hamper his movements. There is a too hasty entering the lists for conflict. The odds are not always carefully estimated, and a "squeeze" at the close of the fray is clearly shown. By this I mean that Mr. Varian is somewhat too impulsive and hasty, and a clearer knowledge and consideration of his position beforehand would make him a man of power and control.

D. Melarky is another of the fiery, energetic and impulsive temperaments with a hasty and vigorous mind, and things begun must be ended as soon as possible, or its presence is wearisome and tedious. There is originality about the character, but depression often interferes with its active exercise, and often exerts an injurious effect upon the whole thought.

F. H. Wells evinces energy and firmness almost to dogmatism and a resolute reliance upon his own power. The character is powerful and able, yet too hasty and sensitive at times. There is a lack of the finer feelings shown, still there is a grace and occasional kindness that will make up for their deficiency.

E. P. Hardesty is a nervously ambitious man, whose mind, however, lacks the power to organize and thoroughly promote the schemes which he conceives are available. There is a fair amount of will power shown, but it has lost some of its earlier power and vigor.

R. P. Hamill is one of the excitable, quick temperaments, who likes to go at things with a steam-engine speed, and battering-ram force. I would imagine that Mr. Hamill's ideas are uttered rapidly, and unless he is nervous—with vehemence. There is this power shown, although it may like other qualities, lie dormant.

J. W. Smith shows energy and a fair-will power, but a too easy yielding to those whom he recognizes his superiors in mental ability. There is a grace and ease about the character, combined with the qualities before spoken of that will make Mr. Smith a very agreeable and pleasant companion.

And now, reader, I have discharged my self-imposed task to the best of my ability. If my delineations have been incorrect, they need hurt no one's feelings, for they have been perfectly honest and in accordance with the rules for such delineations I laid down some years ago for my guidance and pleasure. If any names have been omitted it is because they do not appear in my autograph book; and it would be esteemed a favor to have such autographs sent to me to complete the list of the Nevada law-makers of the year 1893. Should there be any who have read my delineations with incredulity or surprise I would be gratified to hear from them with a few lines of writing (not a mere signature only). I will then delineate from this as accurately as I know how, provided stamps be sent for return postage, etc.

LITTLE MINNIE PALMER.

The Sweet Little Creature Who Captures Everybody.

Little Minnie Palmer, says the Washington Star, commenced her engagement in that city before the largest audience of the present season, numbering among them General W. T. Sherman, his daughter and staff, General S. S. Carroll, General Elmer, General Dumont and nearly every prominent army, navy and cabinet officer in Washington; also a large number of fashionable ladies. After the performance most of them assembled at the Arlington, where Miss Palmer was given a grand reception, followed by a serenade by the Marine band, with speeches, etc. The streets were ablaze with calcium lights, lighting up the faces of thousands of people. Miss Palmer was acquainted with the fact that Mr. Wash. Naylor, a celebrated horseman in Washington, had a trotter which had never been named, for the want of some successful enterprise or project to be associated with the mare, and Little Minnie Palmer being recognized as the most successful of her style (her entry here being a grand triumph and she being universally acknowledged by all the assemblage to be prettier off the stage than on and altogether as pretty as a wax doll), the trotter was named "Little Minnie Palmer." The lovely little creature will appear at the Nevada Theater on the 8th instant.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

Officer Mershon Shot at by a Cowardly Foot-pad.

This morning, about half-past 2 o'clock, as officer Mershon was passing the enclosure in the rear of the Coats Tavern, some unknown miscreant discharged a pistol at him through a crevice in the fence. Mershon instantly wheeled and returned the fire, sending four shots after the assassin, without harming him, so far as known at present, as it was difficult to distinguish objects in the gloom. There is an element in town that would like to dispose of the officers, if possible, and this act is probably the first move toward accomplishing it. But if they think there is no hereafter, let them keep on.

Polled Cattle.

A breed of animals that is becoming very popular among stockmen as polled cattle are coming into public favor in many parts of the country, though many are ignorant as to the meaning of the term. The following from an exchange may not be uninteresting: "The term 'polled cattle' is applied to those breeds of cattle which are hornless. It is, however, among the cattle breeders of to-day more particularly applied to the Galloway and the Angus, or Aberdeen breeds.

The Galloways, which take their name from a locality in Scotland where they have been raised for centuries, were not assigned to separate classes until 1867. They were first brought into the United States by the Michigan State Agricultural Society in 1865, and several herds are now held in that State, raised from this stock.

In 1870 they were introduced into Wisconsin, and a year later Robert Culver of Boulder county, Col., brought a pair into that State from Canada, full-blooded descendants of imported cattle of the purest blood. There has been a constant advance in the price of polled cattle since their introduction, until at the breeders' sale in 1882 they excelled all others, the Herefords and Short Horns not excepted.

Roll of Honor in the School for Girls.

The following is the roll of honor in Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, for the month ending February 28, 1893: Cora Manning, 99; Mary Franklin, 98; Armenia Grippe, 98-3; Emily Cutting, 98-1-5; Louise Sissa, 98-1-6; Hattie Rowland, 97; Nina Burkett, 96; Lillie O'Donnell, 97; Bessie Boardman, 97; Mary Strong, 97-1-6; Annie Crutcher, 96; Sallie Dunlop, 96.

C. H. SANFORD, Principal.

Harden Dan.

The Truckee Republican, commenting on Dan De Quille's statement that there are no white-fish in the Truckee river, says: "What do you know about fish, anyhow? The fish that are being caught in the Truckee river are white-fish, the spawn of which was deposited some seasons ago, and the fellows are big enough to take a hook. Chub yourself and see how you like it."

Reno Officers Complimented.

Officer Teeter, who has just returned from Reno with Ah Loy, says the Truckee Republican, pays the highest compliments possible to the officers of the law in that section. In a long and varied experience as an officer, Mr. Teeter states that he never met a more courteous, gentlemanly lot of men in his life than the officers of Washoe county, Nevada.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS.

A Carefully Selected Lot of Seeds For Sale.

R. E. Queen has one of the finest assortments of seeds, bulbs, etc., ever offered in Reno, comprising everything necessary to start a nursery orchard or garden. He has just received a variety of seeds from Vick's celebrated gardens in New York, vegetable, clover, flower and grass, which he offers to farmers at the lowest possible rates. What ought to be particularly interesting to agricultural people is the item of his advertisement, — published in another column — that he has a quantity of "evergreen millet" for sale. This wonderful forage plant was particularly described in the GAZETTE last week, and farmers should avail themselves of the opportunity to experiment with it. If you want seeds of any kind call upon Queen.

Much Obligated.

The citizens of Verdi write to the GAZETTE asking it to thank the Reno people for their generous attendance at the ball on Friday night. The large number of tickets sold has left the new hall nearly free from debt. A pleasant meeting place for social or literary pleasures is thus provided.

Good Fishing.

The fish are beginning to bite at Independence and Webber lakes, and good strings have already been caught. The season promises to be a good one, piscatorily.
